MEDIA RELEASE

December 10, 2004

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE...

COUNCIL on OCCUPATIONAL HEALTH TO PRESENT AT NCLC 2005, MARCH 3-5

The Council on Occupational Health will be involved in the largest legislative convention of the year - NCLC 2005 in Washington, DC. It will be held March 2, 2005 at the Hyatt Regency Washington Hotel. A General Session for lobbying on Capitol Hill will be March 3, 2005, beginning with a Congressional Reception at 8:00 a.m.

The ACA's House of Delegates meeting will commence Friday, March 4th and will be followed by a continuing education for license renewal on Saturday, March 5th.

The educational program will be presented by Dr. Joseph J. Sweere, Professor, Northwestern Health Sciences University, Bloomington, MN. His presentation is "Corporate Safety and Wellness – Chiropractic in the Mainstream", addressing the viability of Chiropractic for health care and safety for America's workplaces, and the tremendous opportunity DCs have by working with employers.

Reservations:

To make your room reservation, please call the Hyatt Regency Washington at 202-737-1234 or toll-free at 800-233-1234. When making your room reservation, please mention that you are with the American Chiropractic Association to get the special group room rate of $235.00 per evening for a single or $260.00 for a double room.

The Hyatt Regency Washington is located at 400 New Jersey Ave., NW, Washington, DC 20001. Please note the room reservation cutoff date is February 1, 2005. After that date, the hotel will not guarantee room availability or the special group rate.

Who should attend? This event is specifically geared to all members of the chiropractic community. All who attend the convention will receive complimentary conference materials, a lobby kit, exclusive updates from top chiropractic lobbyists and the chance to meet and network with Members of Congress.
